THE STORY BEHIND THE HYMN: My Country 'Tis of Thee

There are songs that very nearly sing themselves—songs that unite our minds and hearts, and in a matter of minutes transport us to a lofty place and another time. Such is the song chosen to be the subject of this story.

One afternoon, Samuel, a student at Andover Theological Seminary in Andover, Mass., was sitting in his room on the campus. The school was near the church in which the lantern was hung during Paul Revere's famous ride. Lowell Mason, a music publisher, had given young Samuel, who spoke several languages, a number of European music books, asking him to translate some of the songs into English. Mason thought, perhaps, they might be used in a new hymnal being compiled.

Samuel Francis Smith, age 24, was thrilled as he heard a children's choir at Park Street Church in Boston sing, for the first time in public, My Country 'Tis of Thee, a song he had written several months earlier. The presentation was on July 4, 1832.

(Vs. 1) *My country 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty,
of thee I sing: Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride, From every mountainside
Let freedom ring!*

(Vs. 4) *Our fathers' God, to Thee, Author of liberty,
To thee we sing: Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light; Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!*

To: The Ladies at the Little Kidz Kloset

Thank you all for treating us so kindly and making us feel welcome each and every time we visit! I greatly appreciate the diapers, wipes, and all of the other things we have found useful! It is wonderful to be blessed during this transitional time in our lives and to receive the grace and patience we need to help us make it through!

Thank You! Thank You! Thank You! A special shout out to Ms. Judy for being an awesome and supportive soul!

Forever Grateful,
Teresa L.

FROM THE WORSHIP/SPIRITUAL LIFE MINISTRY:

Living Sacrifices to God

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be confirmed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Serve God with Spiritual Gifts

For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, as God has dealt to each one a measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith; or ministry, let us use it in our ministering; he who teaches, in teaching; he who exhorts, in exhortation; he who gives, with liberality, he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

Behave Like a Christian

Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is good. Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another; not lagging in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing steadfastly in prayer; distributing to the needs of the saints, given to hospitality.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. Be of the same mind toward one another. Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. do not be wise in your own opinion.

Repay no one evil for evil. Have regard for good things in the sight of all men. If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceable with all men.

So...Let us continue to pray and serve God with our spiritual gifts and brotherly love to our faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen
