SESSION UPDATE - October

- ◆ The Fulcrum Center will hold an open Q & A on Spiritual Warfare, Identity, etc. on Saturday November 1st from 9 AM until Noon in Calvary Fellowship Hall.
- ◆ The Council of Churches (The Food Pantry) will be using the Senior High Room on Wednesdays from 12-3 PM for the month of October for the purpose of sign-ups for the Children's Christmas giveaway.
- ◆ A Congregational Meeting has been set for Sunday September 28th after the modern service. A light lunch will be provided and the meeting will start at approximately 12:30, pending David Demarest's arrival from Martins Ferry. David will give an overview of the actions of PCUSA and how it may impact the congregation of Calvary, along with options for a path forward. The purpose for the meeting is to obtain input from the congregation on how they would like to see the Church move forward.
- ◆ The Nominating Committee for Elders will start their work in October for the class of 2028. Please prayerfully consider serving if contacted by members of the committee.

MISSION OF THE MONTH FOR OCTOBER

The House of the Carpenter serves people in Wheeling and throughout the Upper Ohio Valley—helping families, friends, and neighbors. Their goal is to serve all God's children and ensure that all are welcomed into a community that is safe and filled with grace. They are located at 200 S. Front St., Wheeling, WV Call 304-233-4640 for more info. and hours of operation.

THE SYMPATHY OF THE CONGREGATION is extended to the Family and Friends of Margaret J. "Peg" Coleman, age 97, who passed away, Saturday, September 20, 2025 in Belmont Manor Nursing Home. She was a member of Calvary Presbyterian Church where she formerly served as Organist and was active in the Women's Association Circles.
